

I Get English 78

QUIRKY NEWS : How to enjoy life... slowly! (Page 72)

Reading II

1. Carlo Petrini
2. In 1986
3. as a protest against the proposed opening of a McDonald's in a historic area of Rome
4. to promote the use of fresh, local food in the company of friends or family
5. Over 83,000
6. Carl Honoré
7. an alternative to mass-produced clothing
8. Norway's NRK

LISTENING PRACTICE : US bar chat (Page 74)

US Bar Chat

1. One of the speakers says that it's OK that OJ Simpson is making money from this, that the public are interested in it, and that he has every right to publish the book if he wants to.
2. The other speaker doesn't like it because the family is still grieving, they should put the topic to rest, the family shouldn't go through it again, and many people believe he was actually guilty.

PRACTICAL ENGLISH : How to greet people on special days! (Page 77)

1. presents; 2. hamster; 3. results; 4. family; 5. town; 6. lunch

GROUP TALK: Chatting about Sunday! (Page 80-81)

Listening II

1. 16; 2. relax; 3. because not all the stores are open;
4. They want to relax too; 5. a family day; 6. on Friday, or something like that

READING PRACTICE II : Matching Exercise (Page 82-83)

1. H 2. G 3. L 4. C 5. D 6. K 7. A 8. B 9. E
10. I 11. M 12. F 13. J

LISTENING PRACTICE III : The Skiing Trip (Page 86)

Typical Dialogues

1. Gordon wants to do some off-piste skiing.
2. Michaela doesn't want to follow Gordon because she thinks it's too dangerous.

READ & LISTEN: Quiz (Page 90-91)

Mostly "a" = You take pride in your home. It would be a pleasure to stay with you.

Mostly "b" = Have you ever wondered why you never get any visitors?